What is Neuro Hand Reflex Therapy Sorensensistem.TM

Neuro Hand Reflex Therapy Sorensensistem TM is a system for awakening the body to health and wellness through your hands. By stimulating specific points on the hands, resolving pain and balance internal organ function.

Hand Reflex Therapy Sorensensistem TM includes the reflexology level of treatment, similar in concept to the reflexology of the foot. The reflex map of the hand was discovered in 1971 by Dr. Tae-Woo Yoo, O.M.D., Ph.D. in Korea and has been clinically and experimentally tested for accuracy.

Hand Reflex Therapy Sorensensistem TM includes the entire acupuncture meridian system, but in miniature, on the hands. This addition to the reflex system gives hand therapy many treatment options, as explained below.

Hand Reflex Therapy Sorensensistem TM is based in Koryo Sooji Chim or Korean Hand Therapy theorizes that the hands are a micro-cosmos of the body.

The function of the human body can be manipulated by stimulating the corresponding points on the hands.
